Accounts audited and found correct by B.R. Lander, 1 March, 1977

^a Match fees of 50p per player were collected in 8 home matches; but in all 7 players were not charged (3 guests, and 4 who lost valuables when the changing rooms were raided), making a total of $(88-7)=81$ fees collected.

^b Subscriptions of £1 were collected from the 13 members who played in 3 or more games, but it proved impossible to extract more than 50p from one player (whom I shall not name).

^c We received 3 donations from senior members, plus 30p left over from the beer kitty after a trip to Newcastle.

^d Teas were provided in 6 matches, at 15p each on 5 occasions and 40p each for the County Police game, giving $(110 \times 15p + 22 \times 40p) = £25.30$.
