168. The Treasurer's Report was accepted with thanks. After much debate it was finally agreed to implement a new system of subscription for one season only, i.e. the payment of a flat rate of 50p per person for each match played.

169. The Secretary reported on the activities of the 1971 season and circulated results and averages. Again it had been a fairly successful season with some good individual performances and some entertaining matches.

170. Fixtures 1972

Details of provisional fixtures were circulated. It was hoped that extra fixtures could be arranged with Johnston School Staff and Hull University and Sheffield University Staff XI's.

171. Inter-Staff Festival 1972

The Secretary gave information on the proposed staff festival at Sheffield from 4th - 7th July. It was agreed to contact Newcastle with a view to sending a joint side. There was enough interest to indicate that this would be a possibility.

172. Any Other Business

- i) The possibility of Mrs. Jarvis not being able to serve teas for the forthcoming season was discussed. A contingency plan involving staff wives was agreed upon.
- ii) The Secretary would ask Mr. Jarvis to provide the usual Monday evening nets at the beginning of the Season starting at about 5.00 p.m.

173. The meeting closed at 6.00 p.m.

B. Wetton
